

CONGRESS OF SALVATION at WINNIPEG conducted by THE GENERAL

SATURDAY
Nov. 6 to

THURSDAY
Nov. 11

Saturday, 3.30 p.m.
The Citadel
YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Saturday, 7.00 p.m.
Grace Church
SOLDIERS AND EX-
SOLDIERS

Sunday, 10.30 a.m.
Dominion Theatre
SOLDIERS AND OFFICERS ONLY

Sunday, 2.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
LECTURE: "THE SAL-VATION ARMY"
His Honor, Sir James Aikins, will preside.

Sunday, 6.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bldg.
CONVENTION HALL
SALVATION

Monday, 7.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
MISSIONARY DEMON-STRATION

Tues. and Wed.
OFFICERS' COUNCILS

Thursday
STAFF-OFFICERS'
COUNCILS
Commissioners Lamb, Law-ley and Eadie will support
The General

PRAY FOR THE GENERAL

PRAY FOR THE CONGRESS

—and now for Canada West!
The General

The WAR CRY

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA WEST

O BRAMWELL BOOTH - GENERAL - WILLIAM BOOTH - FOUNDER - WILLIAM EADIE - COMMISSIONER O

No. 25

WINNIPEG, NOVEMBER 13, 1920

Price 5 cents

General Bramwell Booth

AS ANNOUNCED THE GENERAL WILL CONDUCT A GREAT CONGRESS AT WINNIPEG—NOV. 6 TO NOV. 11
(FULL REPORT WILL APPEAR IN OUR NEXT ISSUE)

By COLONEL JOHN DEAN

The Army's Motto: THE WORLD FOR CHRIST

THE WAR CRY

Printed for The Salvation Army in Canada
by The Farmer's Address, at Winnipeg, Manitoba. Editor: John T. Jones and Joseph Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Editor's Desk

THE issue is shipped to the different points. The General, God willing, will have arrived in Winnipeg and will be in the midst of his great campaign against Sin and the Devil. The General believes in a real, live, personal Devil. The Salvation Army believes in a personal Devil; every Salvationist believes in a personal Devil—if not he or she ceases to be a Salvationist. He is a subtle enemy, who comes in many forms and uses every possible means to oppose the Son of God and His glorious followers.

The General, in the Name of Christ and in the Power of God, has come to Winnipeg to wage war against the "Tyrant of the Powers of the Air," whose overthrow will not be by "might or power," by plan, originating from the mind of man, but by the Spirit of God. As we pen these lines all things are now ready," but the Devil is ready also; his legions are lined up and he is determined to frustrate every plan that has as its objective the Salvation of souls of men. May every Salvationist realize this and pray that the Spirit of God will prevail during the campaign. It can be so; it all depends on the faith and works of God's people.

One has only to thoughtfully consider the matter for a brief period to get some idea, some vision of what such a Congress as now in progress will mean to the work of The Salvation Army in Western Canada. It can but result in a general "forward march"; it speaks for progression; it means the brightening of the spiritual experience of the Officers and rank and file; it will generate a greater confidence in the Organization; it will foster the great "family idea." It brings us close up to our General, our Leader in the Lord, it reminds Salvationists of their call to service within in its ranks, and the almer of the error of his ways.

Territorial News

A special stereoscopic service was conducted by Adjutant Adams and Lieutenant Fuglestad at the town of Winnipeg, Man. Four hundred people attended. The Menominee, at whose church the meeting was held, are greatly interested in Salvation Army Social Work, and generously responded to the appeal for funds.

Captains Merritt and Hamsel conducted the forthright Officers' prayer meeting at the Citadel on Tuesday, Oct. 20.

Lieutenant L. Williams of the Women's Social Department, is at present on furlough at her home during the Lieutenant was recently bereaved of her mother. Pray that God will comfort her in her great loss.

Ensign and Mrs. Edwards of India have reached England safely, and through the medium of the War Cry wish to thank their Canadian comrades for their helpfulness during their sojourn in the "Land of the Maple."

The Commissioner

TERRITORIAL COMMANDER CONDUCTS SPECIAL MEETINGS IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ST. JAMES CONVENT, MRS. RADIE AND CHIEF SECRETARY AND MRS. MORRIS ASSIST—MEETINGS HELD IN CLASSIC THEATRE—GOD-HONORING RESULTS—NINE SOULS

THE closing scenes of the Commissioner's campaign at St. James on Sunday, Oct. 31, were such that would have gladdened the heart of any true follower of God. The prayer meeting following the final effort of the day was a long and hard-fought one, but faith and works brought results. Nine souls surrendered. Among them were several local women whom the Commissioner and other local comrades had been praying for some time. Their intensity of faith, tears and compassionate interest in these wanderers stirred one to the depths. Many were visibly moved, and dry eyes were the exception, as one after another of the earnest ones sought and found the Saviour.

A Profitable Day
The meetings held in the Classic theatre, and there were good attendances all day. The total of enthusiastic and able supporters in Mrs. Radie, the Chief Secretary and Mrs. Morris, and the Officers of the Territorial, Social, Divisional and Training Staffs and Cadets.

Much of the presence of God was felt in the Holiness meeting. In the unavoidable absence of the Commissioner the Chief Secretary led on in the afternoon.
A large percentage of the evening congregation consisted of people not to him despite his weakness and lack of faith. She exhorted Christians to be strong in the Lord, pleaded with the sinner to repent, and the backslider to return to God.

The Power of Song was the theme which the Commissioner chose for his address, taking as the "Key" Scripture part of a verse from the Book of Revelation.

His business, his mission, to assert the claims of God, God had many ways of bringing men face to face with His claims—such as sickness, bereavement, financial difficulties, sorrow, trouble. The Holy Spirit leads by the consciences of men in different ways. When Salvation takes place it entirely changes a man; a thorough work is accomplished. There are many mediums through which the Spirit speaks, but none so powerful or effective as song.

"Can Love Punish?"
Incidents and illustrations were culled from the Commissioner's fund of personal experience to clothe the points raised and help fasten them in the minds of his hearers.

Judgment and hell were dwelt upon, and the question asked, "Can love punish?" Arguments in the affirmative were expounded, reinforced by Scriptural authority.
The Commissioner closed his Spirit-filled address with a stirring appeal and "up to the minute" testimony of the power of God in his life.

The prayer meeting was entered into with great earnestness. All concerned apparently had one set purpose, viz., the Salvation of souls, continually before them. The nights and scenes were impressive. Tears flowed freely as the audience gathered around personal friends and relatives entreaching them to seek their peace with God, and to let Him have His way in their lives.

From the Commissioner down God's Spirit strove, worked and pleaded; the Spirit strove; the "arm of the Lord" was revealed and men and women began to submit their wills to the Almighty. It was a glorious finish to a good and testimony. The Chief Secretary said:

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.—Matt. v. 14.

Congress Notes

AS previously announced, The General will have a full program from the moment he leaves the train at Winnipeg until he steps aboard it again for the United States.

By the time this issue is in the hands of our readers he will be "in the heat" of the great Congress. Pray continually for the General.

At the moment of going to press (Friday evening, Nov. 5) the Commissioner is conducting a welcome meeting to the Officers from outside points at the Rupert Street Citadel. Enthusiasm and faith are high.

In compliance with the Commissioner's special request, The General had agreed to meet the Young People up to the age of 21 years at the Young People's meeting, Nov. 6, at 8:30 p.m. The Young People are delighted and our Leader also made mention of the fact that the Commissioner's father was at one time a soldier of her—a true blood and fine one.

Mrs. Hobbs thanked the Commissioner and said she was grateful to The Army for the "open door" of opportunity it offered for women.

Mrs. Commissioner Radie and Band and Songster selections and vocal duets helped considerably to maintain interest and generally enliven the proceedings.
Mrs. Commissioner Radie spoke with effect on Lot of the goodness of God to him despite his weakness and lack of faith. She exhorted Christians to be strong in the Lord, pleaded with the sinner to repent, and the backslider to return to God.

The Commissioner chose for his address, taking as the "Key" Scripture part of a verse from the Book of Revelation. His business, his mission, to assert the claims of God, God had many ways of bringing men face to face with His claims—such as sickness, bereavement, financial difficulties, sorrow, trouble. The Holy Spirit leads by the consciences of men in different ways. When Salvation takes place it entirely changes a man; a thorough work is accomplished. There are many mediums through which the Spirit speaks, but none so powerful or effective as song.

"Can Love Punish?"
Incidents and illustrations were culled from the Commissioner's fund of personal experience to clothe the points raised and help fasten them in the minds of his hearers.

Judgment and hell were dwelt upon, and the question asked, "Can love punish?" Arguments in the affirmative were expounded, reinforced by Scriptural authority.

The Commissioner closed his Spirit-filled address with a stirring appeal and "up to the minute" testimony of the power of God in his life.

The prayer meeting was entered into with great earnestness. All concerned apparently had one set purpose, viz., the Salvation of souls, continually before them. The nights and scenes were impressive. Tears flowed freely as the audience gathered around personal friends and relatives entreaching them to seek their peace with God, and to let Him have His way in their lives.

From the Commissioner down God's Spirit strove, worked and pleaded; the Spirit strove; the "arm of the Lord" was revealed and men and women began to submit their wills to the Almighty. It was a glorious finish to a good and testimony. The Chief Secretary said:

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.—Matt. v. 14.

The Commissioner chose for his address, taking as the "Key" Scripture part of a verse from the Book of Revelation. His business, his mission, to assert the claims of God, God had many ways of bringing men face to face with His claims—such as sickness, bereavement, financial difficulties, sorrow, trouble. The Holy Spirit leads by the consciences of men in different ways. When Salvation takes place it entirely changes a man; a thorough work is accomplished. There are many mediums through which the Spirit speaks, but none so powerful or effective as song.

"Can Love Punish?"
Incidents and illustrations were culled from the Commissioner's fund of personal experience to clothe the points raised and help fasten them in the minds of his hearers.

Judgment and hell were dwelt upon, and the question asked, "Can love punish?" Arguments in the affirmative were expounded, reinforced by Scriptural authority.

The Commissioner closed his Spirit-filled address with a stirring appeal and "up to the minute" testimony of the power of God in his life.

The prayer meeting was entered into with great earnestness. All concerned apparently had one set purpose, viz., the Salvation of souls, continually before them. The nights and scenes were impressive. Tears flowed freely as the audience gathered around personal friends and relatives entreaching them to seek their peace with God, and to let Him have His way in their lives.

From the Commissioner down God's Spirit strove, worked and pleaded; the Spirit strove; the "arm of the Lord" was revealed and men and women began to submit their wills to the Almighty. It was a glorious finish to a good and testimony. The Chief Secretary said:

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.—Matt. v. 14.

The General in Ottawa

Official Government and Civic Welcomes Extended to Army's Leader—The Mayor's Stirring Address—His Excellency the Governor-General Presides at Lecture

A MOST hearty welcome to Canada will have been accorded The General, and expectations are high for widespread spiritual results of his campaign.

The reception tendered The General on his arrival at Ottawa on Tuesday morning, Oct. 26, will stand out as one of the evidences of the onward march of the Salvation Army in Canada.

Official government and civic welcomes were extended to him, and from the crowds on the streets the General will have received a real ovation. The Ottawa "Citizen" says: "Few public men arriving in Ottawa during the last decade have been given such enthusiastic cheers."

Sir George Foster, acting Premier, visited The General in the early forenoon, tendering him a most cordial welcome and remaining with him, chatting informally, for half an hour.

Then The General met a number of newspaper men, who were eager to learn his views upon a wide range of subjects. To them, The General addressed some personal words before he separated from them.

Shortly before noon, the mounted Bands of three City Corps and a large body of soldiers marched to the hotel where The General was billeted, headed by the Union Jack, The Army flag and a huge sign bearing the words, "Welcome to Our General."

The General's car entered the procession, which marched to the city hall. The portico and entrance had been decorated with flags for the occasion, and Mayor Hugh Fisher and representatives of the Council and Board of Control met The General and escorted him to the council chamber, where his worship delivered an address.

"On behalf of the people of Ottawa, of all creeds, I bid you welcome," he said. "You are welcome because of your safely mother, because you are the son of an heroic father (cheers), the greatest of modern prophets, who in the war against evil led that great Army which bore his colors, and also stimulated and inspired the hosts of righteousness which fought under other flags; who taught, as none other taught, that purity and misery are the divorced allies of sin; that forgiveness to the conditions in which we live is one of the greatest sins for which we must answer."

Respected and Blessed
"You are welcome as the present head of The Salvation Army, an Army expected by everyone; respected and blessed because it preaches and practices a religion that finds expression in good works."
As citizens of Ottawa and of Canada, we are pleased to have an opportunity to thank The Salvation Army for what it has done for our city and our country. You are a man of many faces. You have done work that others have not done, and you have done it with the greatest of earnestness.

What we are particularly grateful for is that you have done work that we have not done, and you have done it with the greatest of earnestness. You have undertaken the "dirty work" of society, to care for the drunkard, the criminal, the fallen woman, the outcast of society, and that work your Army has glorified.

You have accomplished much through the direct efforts of your own hands, but the measure of your success is not what you have yourselves directly accomplished. You have demonstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of many kinds are extending and supplementing the work which you have begun.

You are welcome for another reason, because of yourself (cheers). We know that in the early days of the Army it was you, as Chief of the Staff, with your great organizing genius, who made possible the success of The Army and its work.

We know that for many years you have borne the tremendous responsibility of Commander-in-Chief and have inspired your forces with earnestness and enthusiasm. We know what a large crowd of people outside the

monstrated that social work of this kind is worth while, that much that seemed hopeless is possible, and governmental bodies and organizations of

A Strenuous Offensive Maintained

More Successful Harvest Ingatherings—"Seek to Save" Campaign Launched at Many Points

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Successful Harvest Thanksgiving—On Sunday and Monday, Sept. 26 and 27, the Citadel was lavishly decorated for our Harvest Festival services. Lieutenant Ed spoke on "Thanksgiving" in the Holiness meeting. In the afternoon meeting a hearty welcome was given to Sister Mrs. Taylor, Corps Cadet Florence Taylor, and Sister Wild from Medicine Hat.

The following recruits were enrolled as soldiers: Brother Chief Hardy, Brother and Sister Lapping, Brother and Sister Thompson. The Citadel was crowded at night. The Band played while the soldiers and friends marched to the front and deposited their gifts of food on the altar. A number of comrades gave, and Adjutant Hardy delivered an earnest address. On Monday night a short service was held previous to the sale of goods. Sergeant Major Mundy disposed of all the things in a creditable manner, and the record sum of $150 was realized. —H. D.

VERMILION, Alta.—October 3 was our Harvest Festival Sunday. Captain Action of Edmonton was with us for the week-end. Four souls gave themselves to God. Halliclough spoke. On the following Monday we had our Harvest Festival sale, the first held in Vermilion. Proceeds of all donations were contributed by many kind friends. Captain Action was the auctioneer. All the goods were disposed of, and the amount realized was $50. From the Lord!

EDMONTON III.—The week-end meetings, Oct. 9 and 10, were led by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Larson. God came very near at Kneo Drill. Our Young People's work is going ahead. The attendance on Sunday was eighty. The Staff-Captain spoke to the children. We regret that Sister Mrs. Mann, our Y.P.E.M., has been quarantined for diphtheria, but she is now able to get again. After a rousing Open-Air a Salvation meeting was held, followed by a hard-fought prayer meeting. Three souls knelt at the Cross. Halliclough spoke. On Monday night we had our Harvest Festival sale. The effort has been very successful and the comrades have worked faithfully. Captain DeSève has been welcomed and is leading us on to victory. —Corps Cadet.

KAMLOOPS, B.C.—We are glad to be able to report progress. Our Harvest Thanksgiving services on Sunday, Oct. 8, were conducted by our Divisional Commanders, Brigadier and Mrs. Coombe. They visited Captain Lawson at the hospital, after which they led the meeting with the Young People. Their words of counsel were very much appreciated.

In the afternoon we went to Fruitlands (an outpost), where Brigadier and Mrs. Coombe conducted a meeting with the Junior and Senior Soldiers. Parents also showed their interest in the children's work by their presence at the meeting. The day was a stormy day. An Open-Air was afterwards held in Chinatown. The Salvation meeting was one of rich blessing and heart-searching. A good crowd was present and Mrs. Coombe addressed us and exhorted us. Two souls volunteered for Salvation and claimed the victory. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion and we had a display of vegetables, fruit and other things for which we praise God.

Edmonton I. Band

VISITS WETASKIWIN AND CAMROSE—STAFF-CAPTAIN LARSON, DIVISIONAL OFFICER, ACCOMPANIES—SPLENDID CROWDS AND EXCELLENT RESULTS

On a recent Saturday afternoon, in auto placed at their disposal by kind friends and comrades, the Edmonton I. Band left for their annual visit to Camrose, Alta., which is about eighty miles from Edmonton. The roads were very bad, and poor time was made in going, which was reached about 4:30. Here an open-air service was held, judging by the crowd and also the collection given, was very much appreciated. We arrived at Wetaskiwin late in the evening, so proceeded on our journey to Camrose, 80 miles distant, and arrived about 10:30. Here we were welcomed by Mrs. Norberg, who had arranged for a hurried supper we went for a short open-air service. A large crowd was waiting for us and followed to the church for the Festival, although it was nearly 11:30. A good service was present. The program was heartily appreciated by all. Commandant Hodinott was in the chair in the absence of Staff-Captain Larson, the auto he was travelling in day morning, about 9 a.m. we had a service at Camrose, also to Captain and Mrs. Norberg, who worked very hard to make us comfortable and the meetings a real success. About 11 a.m. we arrived at Wetaskiwin. Here we found every one full of excitement and looking for our arrival. The first person to greet us was Lieutenant Doris, who had arranged for a large crowd to meet us. We were welcomed by Mrs. Norberg, who had arranged for a hurried supper we went for a short open-air service. A large crowd was waiting for us and followed to the church for the Festival, although it was nearly 11:30. A good service was present. The program was heartily appreciated by all. Commandant Hodinott was in the chair in the absence of Staff-Captain Larson, the auto he was travelling in having a slight breakdown, and he did not arrive until Sunday morning. Sunday was a great day, and all the bandmen enjoyed themselves to the full. In the morning an open-air preceded the inside service, which was conducted by Staff-Captain Larson. In the afternoon the Band gave a splendid program of music to a very large audience in the theatre. It was certainly a treat to the people. Before this program the Band played at the hospital, to the delight and comfort of the patients. At 7 p.m., under the leadership of Staff-Captain Larson and Commandant Hodinott, another open-air service was conducted in which the bandmen gave a splendid account of themselves and then adjourned to the theatre. The audience filled the hall to capacity. The playing of the Band was splendid. Treasurer Holmes and Envoys Staff-Captain and Mrs. Larson. After a well fought prayer meeting one soul was recorded. Monday.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.—Matt. x. 28.

TRAIL, B.C.—On Sunday, Oct. 3, the meetings were conducted by our Officers Ensign and Mrs. Dunlop. At the close of the meeting we had the joy of seeing two souls kneeling at the Cross.

On Friday, Oct. 9, Captain Maguire from Rossland paid us a visit. On Sunday, Oct. 10, God again blessed us and we had the joy of seeing two more souls give their hearts to God.

We have had the pleasure of welcoming Brother and Sister Edgar. On Monday we had with us Brigadier and Mrs. Coombe, and in spite of and scores were unable to obtain admission. The chairman, His Worship Mayor Fowler, stated it was the biggest crowd he had seen in that city. Again the Band excelled themselves. Among the items was an original recitation by C.C. Moffat, composed on the trip. Staff-Captain Larson, Commandant Hodinott expressed appreciation on behalf of the Band for the splendid program and arrangements of this visit. At daybreak we started once more for Edmonton, and too much cannot be said of the hard work of Lieutenant Doris to make our visit to Wetaskiwin the success it was, and we felt him to be a great blessing to the city. We arrived in Edmonton happy in the thought that for three days we had been dispensing sunshine and blessing to all around. —A.H.

the heavy rain an Open-Air was held. The inside meeting was a very poor success. Mrs. Coombe spoke very earnestly and much good was sown.

GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alta.—A spirit of thanksgiving was manifest in all the meetings. On Sunday, Oct. 10, an account of the late harvest the date was postponed until Oct. 9 and 10. The sale of vegetables and newwears was well patronized. The serving of refreshments helped to make the effort a success and $150 was realized. A calf and 50 cabbages were among the thank-offerings. —Opto.

And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: for as many as touched were made perfectly whole.—Matt. xiv. 35.

INDIAN HEAD, Sask.—On Oct. 3 Staff-Captain Morris, our Divisional Officer, visited us. He spent five days with us, which included the week-end. On Monday, Oct. 4, the Staff-Captain conducted our Harvest Festival sale very successfully. He also acted as auctioneer. From this sale we realized a considerable sum.

On Tuesday the Staff-Captain led a very interesting and helpful service. On Wednesday he went to our outpost at Regina, returning to Indian Head on Thursday. On the evening we had the joy of seeing three souls saved. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. and lasted about three hours. Mrs. MacNichol, who had been ill, was able to visit our brother, just in the ward and hear him say, "Lord, take me home." He suffered Winnipeg VII.—On Sunday, Oct. 17, Captain Fox took for his subject in the morning, "Heart Backsliding" and two souls sought for a deeper work of grace. We had a splendid meeting at night. On Monday morning (Thanksgiving Day) the Band and comrades went for a march, which was followed by a Thanksgiving service. One soul surrendered.

On Monday night we held our Harvest Festival sale. Envoys Fick disposed of the goods, and we raised over $60. We have smashed our targets, and give God all the glory.—I. Reynolds, Lieutenant.

Winnipeg VIII (Outpost).—On Oct. 16, 17 and 18 the meetings at this outpost were conducted by Ensign McCaughy and "Dad" Shaw of Dauphin, Man. An Open-Air was held in the village, and the local comrades fully supported us. A good crowd gathered. After the Open-Air we drove to Envoys and Mrs. Siller's, 8 miles distant. Three meetings were held and good crowds greeted us at each place. On Sunday afternoon Brother and Sister Siller were commissioned to the rank of Envoys. These comrades have done a lot of good work in the past and are still doing faithful service in that part of the vineyard.

On Sunday night the schoolhouse was packed. "Dad" Shaw's singing was enjoyed by everyone, and was his message. The Ensign took for his subject "The Ensign took for his subject."

MOOSE JAW, Sask.—Welcome meetings to our new Chief Secretary, Adjutant Clark, who arrived on Sunday, Oct. 19, and it was a real treat to all present. His Worship Mayor Hamilton presided on Monday night, and the work in prospecting. Seven souls were won by an inspiration to us.—F. D. Ketchikan, B.C.—The meetings at Ketchikan are being held regularly on Sundays and week nights, and the work is prospering. Seven souls were won by an inspiration to us.—F. D.

A Strenuous Offensive Maintained

More Successful Harvest Ingatherings—"Seek to Save" Campaign Launched at Many Points

DAUPHIN, Man.—Once again the Messenger of Death has visited our Corps, and Brother George Robertson has answered the call. He attended the Harvest Festival meetings on Sept. 26. The Sunday previous our Brother gave his testimony of the keeping power of God. On Sept. 27, while working in the morning, moving a house, he met with an accident. He was struck to the hospital and lived about three hours. Mrs. MacNichol, who had been ill, was able to visit our brother, just in the ward and hear him say, "Lord, take me home." He suffered

The funeral service was held in the morning. Quite a number of comrades went to the graveside, where a short service was held. The Memorial meeting was conducted by our Officer, Ensign McCaughy. Brother Slickley and Sergeant Major Mrs. Handrell had a few words to say. "Dad" Shaw was the last soldier to speak to our departed Brother. He told Dad he expected to see him at the sale that night.

Three souls came forward for Salvation. We are praying that God may bless and comfort the bereaved widow and relatives. —Red Wing.

VANCOUVER I.—The last two Sundays at Vancouver I. have been wonderful seasons of uplift and blessing. Souls have been saved, soldiers blessed, backsliders restored, and many sanctified. Last Sunday's meetings were led by Colonel and Mrs. Bell, and great crowds listened to their addresses with deep interest.

In the afternoon Staff-Captain Leake gave a very interesting talk on Salvation Army work in India. The chair was taken by Colonel Bell.

On Thanksgiving night all the City Corps united for a Holiness meeting in the Citadel. The Citadel was packed to the doors and a most enthusiastic meeting resulted, finishing up after three and one-half hours with several working the blessing of a clean heart.

We are making plans for the "Seek to Save" campaign, which is being launched in the Royal Theatre on Sunday, Oct. 24. Vancouver is in for victory.

NANAIMO, B.C.—On Sunday, Oct. 10, Captain F. Mundy of B.C. paid us a visit. One soul came out for sanctification in the morning meeting. Mrs. Coombe and her husband, a trio by saxophone, violin and piano; well executed band numbers; and the effective work of the orchestra, under Bandmaster Stanley Newby, were the features. The orchestra had three violins, celli, double bass, clarinet, two saxophones, cornet, trombone and piano, and the brass and dance of the selections were very effective.

Brother Bailey is in Belcher Military Hospital, but improved. Sister Clara Patrick is very ill, after a critical operation at the General Hospital. Sister Mrs. Henderson is also in hospital.

The Chief Secretary

LT-COLONEL MORRIS RECEIVES HEARTY WELCOME TO REGINA —HIS WORSHIP MAYOR GRASSICK PRESIDES, SUPPORTED BY OTHER PROMINENT CITIZENS

CANADA WEST'S Chief Secretary, Lt-Colonel Morris, was accorded a civic welcome at Regina on Wednesday, Oct. 21. The Band marched through the principal streets of the city and a good company gathered at the Citadel. The meeting opened with the rousing song, "Salvation Army, Army of God." Adjutant Olway read his report and Staff-Captain Merrett handed the meeting over to his Worship, Mayor Grassick, who had kindly consented to take the chair. The Mayor spoke briefly, and recalled the early days of "The Salvation Army" in Regina when Captain Isaacson and Lieutenant Mitchell were in charge. His Worship also stated that in those days he was a frequent attendant himself. On behalf of the citizens he extended a very hearty welcome to the Chief Secretary.

Dr. W. D. Cowan, M.P., who is a great friend of the Army, in a somewhat humorous vein asked the audience, "Why has Colonel Morris come to Regina?" and then went on to answer his own question.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.—Matt. v. 17.

His address covered a period of nearly thirty years, referring to many phases of the work, and concluding with a plea for the friends and soldiers present. His rare discourse brought laughter and tears and undoubtedly resulted in a greater knowledge being imparted to all present of the grand work of our beloved Army. Regina comrades bid the Colonel welcome and God-speed in his new appointment.—A. H. Smith, Correspondent.

CALGARY I. S. Alta.—On Sunday morning and evening, Adjutant Carroll led on. Burning hot were his messages, especially in the evening meeting, when an "Army" girl who was separated from his wife came forward, also a dear woman whose heart had been hardened by bereavement. In the afternoon, Lieutenant Keegan from Drumheller assisted.

Monday's "Thanksgiving" night brought us a fine program by the Band. Vocal solos by Bandmaster Stanley Robertson, Captain Leake, a trio by saxophone, violin and piano; well executed band numbers; and the effective work of the orchestra, under Bandmaster Stanley Newby, were the features. The orchestra had three violins, celli, double bass, clarinet, two saxophones, cornet, trombone and piano, and the brass and dance of the selections were very effective.

Brother Bailey is in Belcher Military Hospital, but improved. Sister Clara Patrick is very ill, after a critical operation at the General Hospital. Sister Mrs. Henderson is also in hospital.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.—Matt. vi. 1.

ASSINIBOIA, S. Sask.—The first dedication witnessed in Assiniboia was conducted by Captain MacNichol on Sunday, Oct. 10. The event created considerable interest and a good crowd gathered.

On Sunday morning Mrs. MacNichol spoke on the Scripture, "And Ruth walked with God." At the close three souls consecrated their lives afresh to God. Sunday night one soul surrendered. We have smashed our Harvest Festival target. Praise God.—Interested.

HUMBOLDT, N. Sask.—Last week our Officers went to two adjacent towns collecting for our Harvest Festival, and while there held open-air meetings. The people listened attentively, and apparently enjoyed the singing. We are on the lookout for more opportunities of this kind. God's blessing is felt increasingly in our meetings. Praise God.—Zealous. MACLEOD, Alta.—On Oct. 4, Staff-Captain Leake gave us a very interesting lecture on "The Army's work in India." The meeting was held in the Presbyterian church and a very good attendance.

The day following we went with the Staff-Captain to Clarendon. There is no Corps there. Rev. Mr. Locke (Methodist), the Staff-Captain, together with his congregation of two hundred, gave the Staff-Captain and Lieutenant Battersby a hearty welcome. —G. C.

VANCOUVER II.—On Sunday, Oct. 8, we had good meetings all day. One precious soul came forward and gave his heart to God in the afternoon meeting. At night we had another earnest heart.

VANCOUVER I.—On Sunday, Oct. 24, we commenced our efforts in connection with the "Seek to Save" campaign. Adjutant Harritt spoke on, "One thing thou lackest" in the morning service. When the invitation was given a young man from the rear of the Citadel came forward and gave himself fully to the Lord.

In the afternoon the meeting was held in the Theatre Royal, which has been engaged for six weeks. A good crowd was present and apparently enjoyed the night service.

At night the Songster Brigade met in the theatre at 7 o'clock and held a short service while the Band and soldiers were holding an open-air service at the B.C. Electric. The Band rendered an appropriate selection and the Songsters sang very effectively in the inside meeting. The Adjutant's address was on "Sin." Three sought pardon, making four souls for the first time.

Cottage meetings are being held every Friday night, which are well attended. There are four being held this week. Recently the Band and Songsters gave a musical program and new instruments, and a new march composed by Adjutant Harritt was played. The service was written by the Adjutant a few weeks ago while confined to the house. —Interested.

ESTEVAN, Sask.—God's Spirit was manifest in all messages today. On Sunday, Oct. 11, the Young People's meeting was very successful. The children listened attentively to the Commandant, and were especially interested in his message. —Interested.

Nowhere would there be consolation, if religion were not—Jacob.

CONGRESS OF SALVATION

at WINNIPEG conducted by

THE GENERAL

SATURDAY

Nov. 6 to

THURSDAY

Nov. 11

Saturday, 3.30 p.m.
The Citadel
YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Saturday, 7.00 p.m.
Grace Church
SOLDIERS AND EX-SOLDIERS

Sunday, 10.30 a.m.
Dominion Theatre
SOLDIERS AND OFFICERS ONLY

Sunday, 2.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.

CONVENTION HALL
LECTURE: "THE SALVATION ARMY"
His Honor, Sir James Alkin, will preside.

Sunday, 6.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bldg.
CONVENTION HALL
SALVATION

Monday, 7.30 p.m.
Board of Trade Bld.
CONVENTION HALL
MISSIONARY DEMONSTRATION

Tues. and Wed.
OFFICERS' COUNCILS

Thursday
STAFF-OFFICERS' COUNCILS
Commissioners Lamb, Lawley and Eadie will support The General.

PRAY FOR
THE GENERAL

PRAY FOR THE
CONGRESS

"Here I am at Last!"

The General

The WAR CRY

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA WEST

BRAMWELL BOOTH - GENERAL · WILLIAM BOOTH - FOUNDER · WILLIAM EADIE - COMMISSIONER

No. 29

WINNIPEG, NOVEMBER 20, 1920

Price 5 cents

Great Congress of Salvation at Winnipeg

THE GENERAL on arrival at the Citadel direct from the Railway Depot obliges the "Camera Man"

GENERAL BRAMWELL BOOTH and Staff reached Winnipeg, via the Canadian Pacific, on Saturday, Nov. 6, at 2.35 p.m., and were met and formally welcomed by Commissioner Eadie on behalf of Canada West Salvationists. Aldermen George Fisher and J. L. Wighton, in the unavoidable absence of His Worship, Mayor Gray, represented the City Council. Notwithstanding the fact that no mention had been made of a public reception at the depot, a large crowd gathered, and greeted The General warmly as he stepped aboard the automobile which conveyed him to the Citadel, where he was given a most warm-hearted and typical Western Canadian welcome.

See page 8